

The matrix depicts available information in Batumi and their format. Documents/data will be provided to the contractor after contractual agreement.

Document	Available information relevant for consultancy	Format	Comment
Walkability Concept, Analysis report – Feb. 2022 GIZ	Point of interests; qualitative assessment of streets; general data from Transportation Household Survey (THS) 2016; general data on parking; broad stakeholder mapping etc.	PDF	The Walkability Concept area aligns with the current project area, making all existing data applicable.
Walkability Concept, Final report - Dec. 2022 GIZ	Brief assessment of current situation; mobility solutions; best practice examples; participatory planning results	PDF	The Walkability Concept area aligns with the current project area, making all existing data applicable.
Strategic documents	Available information relevant for consultancy	Format	Comment
Integrated Sustainable Urban Mobility Plan of Batumi – 2017, UNDP	Household survey results; income range per district; mobility rate; trips between city districts etc.	PDF	It does not provide detailed information specific to the project area but can be used to gain a general understanding of mobility characteristics in comparability to other administrative districts
Batumi General Plan – 2021- ongoing CIG	Housing data including (scale 1:2000): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Building Function</li> <li>• Structural Condition</li> <li>• Building Height</li> <li>• Building Footprint</li> <li>• Cadastre</li> <li>• Topography map, orthophoto map, sectoral maps etc.</li> </ul>	PDF/JP EG/GIS	The data could serve as a foundation for developing the base map for the Neighbourhood Concept.
Additional documents for reference	Available information relevant for consultancy	Format	Comment
Batumi Safe Way to School, Tactical Urbanism Playbook – June 2022, GIZ	Mobility Challenges mapping; tactical urbanism concept; implementation report; results	PDF	The project area lies outside our scope, but it could provide valuable insights for evaluating the approaches and methods used in the development and implementation of the tactical urbanism concept.
Cycling Masterplan for Batumi – 2021, GIZ	Cycling infrastructure corridors; standards of planning etc.	PDF	The project area lies outside our scope, but it could provide possible intersection when overlooking bicycle mobility